Stephanie,

I'm hoping to send this out tomorrow to those on the list below (additions/deletions are welcomed!) Please add whatever else you think should be included. I apologize this is SOOO WAY OVERDUE. I also will send something similar to David to include in the next MoSPRA email to see if any others want to join in on the fun.

Good Afternoon!

If you are receiving this email, you have indicated to either me or Stephanie that you are interested in starting (continuing or re-starting) the Accreditation in Public Relations journey. For some, the journey is short; for others, the time frame does not have clear cut boundaries yet. Either is OK!

I'd like to set up an initial information session to get us started before June ends. Look for a Google form/survey from me by Friday, June 15 to gather some important information:

1. Date options for a 30-minute meeting for the information session
2. Choices of whether you want to be on the "fast track" or the "leisure track"
3. Options for monthly study sessions (both phone meeting options as well as interest in in-person study group sessions in different areas of the state)

During our June 30-minute phone session, we will go over resources that will help you become an expert with the knowledge, skills and abilities (known as KSAs) needed to become accredited, as well as an overview to prepare for the Panel Presentation and exam.

Meanwhile, I am attaching the PP presentation that Stephanie and I did at the 2018 Spring MoSPRA/MASA Conference about the APR journey.

Please let me know if you know of any others should be added to the list below of the potential study group or if you know if anyone should be deleted.

Please feel free to pass this along to anyone else you may know who is considering starting the APR process. If you'd rather not get emails about this, let me know and I'm happy to take you off the group list.
